THIRD SCHEDULE

GST TERMS AND CONDITIONS

If there is any conflict between the Agreement and this Addendum with respect to taxes, the Addendum shall control.

IT IS AGREED:

1. Payment Terms -

Under Goods and Services Tax regime (GST as and when made applicable), input credits will be available based on matching concept between Lessee and Lessor. Lessor hereby agrees that all payments due to Lessor by Lessee shall be linked to proper discharge of tax liability by the Lessor within statutory time periods. In the event of failure, non-compliance by Lessor and credit not made available to lessee, lessee shall not release payment of next rental and payment shall be kept on hold till such discrepancy is resolved by Lessor. Such holding of payments by Lessee shall not be a breach of its obligations under the agreement. In addition to above, Lessor shall be eligible for receipt of invoice value in accordance with agreed terms only after appropriate GST is credited to the Government account and appropriate compliances have been complied. In case of any disputes due to non-matching of GST credit, same shall be resolved by Lessor within 30 days of the invoice date, failing which Lessee shall not remit the invoice amount.

2. Safeguarding Clause-

It is to state that Lessors should share correct GST registration number to Lessee and comply with timely uploading of invoice details in the GSTN, to Lessee. Further, the Lessor should ensure that all requirements of an invoice have been captured in the invoice.

In cases where there is a mis-match of credit, nonpayment of tax, non filing of returns, In- correct GST number etc. due to which Lessee has to reverse the availed credit or there is non availability of credit, lessee will restrict payment of rentals or recover the amount from the Lessor. The details of such restriction can be decided by Lessee. The Lessor should correctly capture GSTN registration details on the basis of State mentioned in Invoice to Lessee. In case the details are not provided to Lessee within the prescribed timelines as set by Lessee, then Lessee will treat the Lessor as unregistered Lessor. Lessor should provide GST registration number whenever he gets registered under GST.

3. Tax Indemnity clause -

Lessee has the right to recover tax loss along with consequential interest and penalty suffered by it due to any non-compliance of tax laws by the Lessor. Any GST liability arising on the Lessor on account of loss of GST credits for reasons such as failure of the Lessor to prove details for raising invoice with necessary particulars, delay in payment of consideration beyond stipulated time period and the interest thereon would be on the Lessor itself and Lessee shall not be liable to compensate the same.

4. Declaration/Self Certificate -

Taxes which have been collected/with-held on behalf of Lessee have been duly paid/ will be paid to the Government account within the due dates specified under various Tax Laws in India and Rules made there under. It may please be noted that if Lessee is not able to avail any tax credit due to any short coming on the part of the Lessor (which otherwise should have been available to Lessee in the normal course), then the Lessor at his own cost and effort will get the short coming rectified. If for any reason the same is not possible, then the Lessor will make 'good' the loss suffered by ISec due to the tax credit it lost in that transaction.

5. Timely provision of invoices/ Debit Note/Credit Note-

Lessor to timely provide invoice/ Debit Notes / Credit Notes to enable Lessee to claim tax benefit on or before stipulated time period. All necessary adjustment entries (Credit Note, Purchase Returns, and Debit Notes) shall be made before September of the succeeding financial year.

6. Invoice/Tax Mandate:-

- Mandatory three copies of the invoices need to be provided by Lessor and wherever the law requires, an Electronic Reference Number for each invoice. Further, the invoices for supplies shall clearly mention description of service, the GSTIN No/ UID No along with purchase order/ work order No and date accompanied by advise of despatch and date of packing list.
- Wherever applicable Lessor has the right to deduct "Tax deducted at source" at the rate prescribed under the GST law and remit the same to the government.
- Any Liability arising out of dispute on the tax structure, calculation and payment to the Government will be to the Lessor's account
- The Lessor/ Sub contractor shall communicate to Lessee with regard to any change in the registration, issue of blacklisting or any non-compliance irrespective of the fact that whether such events are attributable to the Lessor or not. Any loss of tax, credit, refund or any other benefit is levied due to cancellation of registration of the Lessor, the Lessor shall be liable to reimburse such loss incurred by Lessee.
